

Welcome to the third week of 25 Weeks of Advent!

“Where are you?”

Have you ever lost someone?

God has...

Were you frantic?

Adam! Where are you!

That’s today’s story...

What does love do when it loses
someone?

What does love do when it finds that someone?

God is love!

In the Garden of Eden, the evil one hinted to Eve that God ‘can’t really love you! He always holds the best back from you!’ He snuck into Eve’s heart. He stole her life!

But God (LOVE remember) is searching. He wants people to

Week 3: God is looking for you

Read: Genesis 3

When Adam and Eve fell into sin, God came looking with a question:

- it is not the question: Why did you do that!?
- it is not the question: What did you do wrong!?

God’s very first question is: Where are you?

God’s first question to you is not: Why did you do that! Or What did you do wrong? If the story of Adam and Eve’s fall into sin teaches us anything about God’s attitude to us, then you will know that His first question to you is always: where are you? “Wherever you are, I will find you. Whatever you’ve done won’t stop me seeking you, to heal you...”

God desires to be with us;

Where are you?

Are you drawing near to God, or are you hiding from him in some way?

What’s your story?

How did God seek you and pursue you?

In what ways can you see that God is pursuing you now?

*In what way can you see God
pursuing those around you?
In what ways can he use you?*

- * cut out the picture of the tree with the snake in it and place it on your Jesse tree. Ask for spares from the church office.
- * Write a letter to God, thanking Him for His unconditional, unchanging love. Put it somewhere you will read it often. Add thoughts and texts, whenever you want to.
